

Sophomore Checklist

Declare your major(s)

Declare your minor(s)

Meet with your academic advisor

Join Phi Eta Sigma if you earned a 3.5 or higher GPA your first year.

Begin actively pursuing internship opportunities related to your academic and career interests.

Are you interested in graduate or professional school? Start researching them. Find out how to prepare and learn about any timelines you need to follow.

Visit the Office of National Scholarships and Fellowships to consider options and begin preparations for applications if you are interested.

Decide on a study abroad opportunity.

Look for leadership and research opportunities.

Update your resume.

Consider joining or attending a professional association in your career interest.

Review your four-year academic plan. Are you on track?

Stay involved in organizations outside the classroom.